

Summer Speaker Series

Back by popular demand, please join us for the 2023 Center for Addiction Research Summer Speaker Series. The series will highlight cutting-edge UC addiction research and UC-community collaborations related to prevention and treatment.

Host: T. John Winhusen, PhD
 Donald C. Harrison Endowed Chair in Medicine
 Professor of Psychiatry & Vice Chair of Addiction Sciences
 Director, Center for Addiction Research, University of Cincinnati

Addressing Substance Use Among Youth in Foster Care: Implementation and Evaluation of Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment (SBIRT) in a Foster Care Clinic

Wednesday,
 June 14, 2023
 12:00–1:00 p.m.

Shauna P. Acquavita,
 PhD, MSW,
 LISW-S
 University of Cincinnati

Mary Greiner, MD, MS
 University of Cincinnati

Sarah Beal, PhD
 University of Cincinnati

The Perfect Storm: Examining the Associations Among Alcohol Use and Intimate Partner Violence in the Age of COVID-19

Wednesday,
 July 12, 2023
 12:00–1:00 p.m.

Joel Sprunger, PhD,
 University of Cincinnati

Rev. Etta Caver, MSW, PhD Student,
 Miami University

Examining Substance Use Around the Timing of Pregnancy from a Health Equity and Patient-Centered Perspective

Wednesday,
 August 9, 2023
 12:00–1:00 p.m.

Nichole Nidey, PhD,
 University of Iowa

Tara Cain, EMPOWER Project Stakeholder

Registration free, open to the public and now available for all virtual presentations:
med.uc.edu/institutes/CAR/summer-speaker-series/speaker-series-2023

The Summer Speaker Series is sponsored by Center for Clinical & Translational Science & Training.

One credit hour of Ohio continuing education credit will be offered in social work, counseling, (Ohio CSWMFT Social Work Provider RSXX038702 & Counselor Provider RCX012101), and psychology for each session. Details for requesting CE credit will be provided at the completion of each session.